

I listen to K-Love radio station all of the time in the Portland Metro area. It is commercial-free, and provides inspirational music and prayer not heard on other stations. It fills a great need in our community for uplifting entertainment and information. It would be a great loss if it were taken off the airwaves.